Restaurant of the Week features Sushi Hana

If you work in the center of Downtown Fresno, you've probably walked to Sushi Hana for lunch. Sushi Hana is the featured restaurant this week in the Downtown Restaurant of the Week promotion. During the week of April 19-25, the spotlight will focus on the Sushi Hana for the Downtown workforce and throughout the wider community. Each week, a new Downtown restaurant is featured.

Sushi Hana is proudly owned by husband and wife, Jin and Young Hahn. Opened only two years ago, it is a regular stop for business and professional people working in Downtown Fresno. While famous for sushi – which is a great reason to stop by – there is variety in their menu. The #1 best-seller is a delicious Chinese Chicken Salad.

What's important in a sushi restaurant is freshness. Daily deliveries assure freshness, while all dressings, sauces and dips are made with special care every day. Lunch specials are offered daily.

Lunch hours at Sushi Hana are 10:30 am – 3:00 pm, Monday through Friday. On Saturday, it's 11:00 am – 3:00 pm. Dinner hours are 4:30 pm – 7:30 pm on Monday through Wednesday and 4:30 pm – 8:00 pm on Thursday and Friday.

Sushi Hana is located at 2321 Kern Street in The Crescent between M and N Streets, across from the Fresno Convention Center. If you're not walking, metered parking is available along the street, or garages are available on both M and N Streets.

Restaurant of the Week originated as a way to introduce a variety of Downtown restaurants to the 45,000 people who work in Downtown Fresno. Information is available at www.downtownfresno.org/restaurant.
