Downtown Fresno Partnership Announces Plans for a Roof Top Bar on the Pacific Southwest Building

"It is in the spirit of growth and revitalization that we proudly present the first craft cocktail bar in Downtown Fresno"

FRESNO, CA (3/4/19) – Plans for a rooftop bar inside the historic Pacific Southwest Building are well underway. The location on the second floor will be the perfect place to launch a new restaurant and bar concept for the first dedicated craft cocktail bar in Downtown Fresno. The space will feature outdoor patio seating with incredible views of the Downtown Fresno skyline, and will fill a new cultural niche in Downtown Fresno. The plans are to create a "space combining Palm Spring resort decor and mid-century gentleman's lounge aesthetics while serving up craft cocktails featuring seasonal, locally sourced ingredients that reflect the unique culture and flavor of the Central Valley." The announcement will be the latest in a number of recent restaurant openings near Mariposa Plaza, in what is quickly becoming one of the most popular areas for restaurants in Downtown Fresno. Mayor Lee Brand, Pacific Southwest Building owner Sevak Khatchadorian and the owners of the planned craft bar will be present at a press conference on March 6th at 10:00 am at the Pacific Southwest Building to unveil the first craft cocktail bar plans.
